

Western Equestrian Society

Membership Application Form

One year membership - from the 1st day of the month of joining

I wish to become a member of the above Society. I understand that the Society was formed to promote the equestrian side of Western Riding and therefore, does not associate itself with games or rodeo events that act to the detriment of the standard of Western Riding in the UK. I understand that a copy of the Society's constitution and rules will be forwarded to me on acceptance of this application together with the Society membership card.

Request for Amateur Status (includes eligibility for Novice Rider Classes subject to WES rule 9 and 32):

I HAVE/HAVE NOT (delete one) received payment during the past 3 years for training riders or horses.

It will delay your membership if this is not completed.
